To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Hereford, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Hereford, beg Leave to approach your moſt Sacred Majeſty with our ſincere Congratulations on the Birth of an Heir Apparent to your Crown, and the happy Recovery of our gracious Queen.

Your People are nearly intereſted in, and joyfully partake of, your Majeſty's Happineſs The Increaſe of your Family opens to us the pleaſing Proſpect of future Felicity to theſe Kingdoms, and ſtrengthens the Foundation of thoſe Bleſſings we at preſent enjoy under your auſpicious Government

May length of Years extend the Glories of your Reign, and the Influence of your Example, and Impreſſions of your Precepts, eſtabliſh in the young Prince all thoſe Virtues which endear you to your Subjects, and make him the happy Means of continuing our National Proſperity to ſucceeding Generations.

Given under our Common Seal, the 29th Day of September, 1762.

The following Addreſs of the Bailiff, Recorder, Juſtices, Bailiffs Peers and Burgeſſes of Wenlock in the County of Salop, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Brook Forreſter, and Cecil Forreſter, Eſqrs. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiff, Recorder, Juſtices, Bailiffs Peers and Burgeſſes of Wenlock in the County of Salop.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our unfeigned Congratulations on the Birth of a Prince, the Heir of your Crown and Dignities. Replete with Gratitude for the unſpeakable Bleſſings we poſſeſs, with what Joy muſt we be affected at an Event, which opens to us the faireſt Proſpect of the Continuance of them to ourſelves and our Poſterity. May the Almighty, by whom Kings reign, ſhower down his choiceſt Favours on your Majeſty and your Illuſtrious Conſort: May you long live an exemplary Pattern of every publick and private Virtue: May His good Providence, in a peculiar Manner, protect the Royal Infant, watch over him in his tender Years, and adorn his mature Age with every Princely Grace; and late, very late, may he ſucceed to the Throne of theſe Realms, and tranſmit to future Ages the full Enjoyment of our preſent Bleſſings.

Given under our Common Seal at Wenlock, the Twenty-ninth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-two.

[Price Three Pence.]

The following Addreſs of the Alderman, Recorder, Comburgeſſes, Burgeſſes, Gentlemen and Clergy of the Borough and Neighbourhood of Grantham in the County of Lincoln, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Thomas Cuſt, Eſq; their Deputy Recorder, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Alderman, Recorder, Comburgeſſes, Burgeſſes, Gentlemen and Clergy of the Borough and Neighbourhood of Grantham in the County of Lincoln.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Alderman, &c. greatly ſenſible of our Happineſs on the auſpicious Birth of a Prince of Wales, moſt heartily join our Congratulations with thoſe of other your Subjects, on an Event ſo pleaſing to your Majeſty and our gracious Queen, and ſo intereſting to the whole Nation.

It is with infinite Pleaſure we view the Publick Cauſe and Glorious Reign of the beſt of Monarchs, ſo early diſtinguiſhed by ſo great an Addition to your Majeſties domeſtick Happineſs: It is our moſt ſincere Wiſh and ardent Prayer, that Divine Providence may give a Stability to your Majeſty's Government, by a large Increaſe of every publick and every private Bleſſing; and that after a long uninterrupted Enjoyment of Heaven's choiceſt Bleſſings, your Majeſty may, full of Years, deliver down the Throne of theſe Kingdoms to a Prince born a Briton, formed by your Majeſty's Inſtructions and Example, to all that is great and worthy of a Chriſtian King, and giving us the moſt certain Proſpect of the Permanence and Perpetuity of the Glory and Proſperity of our Country.

Nor can we omit the preſent Occaſion of expreſſing our Joy with our Fellow-Subjects, on the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms in the Reduction of the important Fortreſs of the Havannah: We impute it entirely to the Bleſſing of God on the Harmony and Zeal of our Land and Sea Forces, that our Enemies are thus compelled to feel and acknowledge the Superiority of our Arms; and it is our general Hope and Deſire, that ſo many Conqueſts may procure for us an Honourable, a Glorious, and a Laſting, Peace.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Sudbury, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Thomas Fonnereau and John Henniker, Eſqrs. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Sudbury, in Common Hall aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Sudbury, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with our cordial Congratulations upon the Auſpicious Birth of the Prince of Wales, and the happy Recovery of the Queen your Royal Conſort.

New

Few Sovereigns, in ſo ſhort a Space of Time, ever afforded their Subjects ſo many juſt Occaſions to expreſs both their Gratitude to Heaven, and their Zeal and Loyalty to the beſt of Kings, as have offered ſince your Majeſty's Acceſſion to the Imperial Crown of Great Britain. The domeſtick Felicity allotted to you by the Hand of Providence, the flouriſhing Commerce of your Kingdoms, the Rapidity and Importance of your Conqueſts (particularly that of the Havannah) are ſuch ineſtimable Bleſſings, that we can only addreſs our Prayers for the Continuance of them to the great Rewarder of ſuperior Virtue, the beneficent Donor of all worldly Happineſs, and the Giver of Victory.
